Topic: Review of minutes from January 2026 – Approved as written

Topic: Presentation – Brian Coleman, St. John's Community Services

Discussion: Brian gave an overview of St. John's Community Services program.

- Introduction of who they are
- Looking to understand the needs & gaps of services in Tioga County
- Not interested in competing with services the county already has
- Focusing on opportunities to assist with what Tioga County needs
- Currently working in region 2 with OPWDD Services
- Homeless Services discussed
- Family Housing program in Ithaca
- Serenity House in Ithaca – Certified Community Residence Program
- Working on a congregate & scatter site re-integration program
- St. John's is a service provider, not a developer of properties
- Q & A session ensued
 - Topics included the homeless situation, housing and various other possible assistance for Tioga County

The group found the discussion very informative and thanked Brian for presenting.
